Numb. 12513.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 24, to Tuesday January 27, 1784.

St. James's, January 27.

THE following Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Middleſex has been preſented to the King by George Byng, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Freeholders of the County of Middleſex, aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt cordial Attachment to your Perſon and Goverment, and our Reverence for the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the glorions Revolution.

We cannot reflect on the very peculiar Situation of the Country at the preſent Moment, and the melancholy State of the National Credit, without repreſenting the Neceſſity that appears for the moſt diligent and active Endeavours of thoſe whom your Majeſty ſhall think proper to intruſt with the Conduct of the Public Affairs, to relieve the one and to reſtore the other; but we muſt deſpair of ſeeing their utmoſt Exertions attended with the leaſt Succeſs, unleſs they are aſſiſted and promoted by the Co-operation of your Parliament.

Therefore, conſidering it as the beſt Pledge we can give of our Affection and Loyalty to your Majeſty, we moſt humbly implore your Majeſty to appoint ſuch an Adminiſtration as may poſſeſs the Confidence of your Parliament and the Public; that, by the Means of their united Efforts, ſuch Meaſures may be purſued as may tend effectually to eſtabliſh the Glory and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign, and permanently ſecure the true Intereſts of all your Dominions.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury, has been preſented to the King by George Gipps and Charles Robinſon, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of this ancient City, humby beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our faithful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and Determination of ſupporting your Government on conſtitutional Principles.

We have ſeen, with the utmoſt Concern, an Attempt made by your Majeſty's late Miniſters to encroach onyour juſt Prerogative, and to deprive a great Commercial Body of their Chartered Rights, which we humbly conceive to be repugnant to the Principles of a free Government, and a direct Violation of the Faith of Parliament.

We therefore heartily rejoice that your Majeſty has diſmiſſed thoſe dangerous Miniſters from their Employments, and aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall at all Times be ready and willing to ſupport your Majeſty in preſerving the well digeſted Legiſlature of this Country, without which we cannot long ſubſiſt as a great and Free People.

We are thoroughly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection for your Subjects, and ſincerely pray to the Almighty, that you may long reign over a free and happy Nation.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark, has been preſented to the King by William Dowſon, Eſq; Chairman, accompanied by James Bullock, William Golding, Edward Layton, Eſqrs. Mr. William Hodgſon, Mr. Joſeph Stafford, and Mr. Thomas Griffiths, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of your Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, in Common Hall aſſembled, are led by every Motive of Duty to give your Majeſty a freſh Teſtimony of their Affection for your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and their Zeal for the Support of the Conſtitution.

We ſincerely truſt that your Majeſty, under the Direction of Providence, will be aſſiſted by a firm and permanent Adminiſtration, whoſe Wiſdom may be equal to direct the important Concerns of theſe Kingdoms, at this critical Conjuncture of Affairs, in whoſe Integrity your People may confide, and on whoſe Zeal and Diligence they may ſecurely depend.

To ſuch an Adminiſtration your faithful Subjects now look up, and congratulate your Majeſty on the Admiſſion of Men into your Councils, on the late Choice of Miniſters, whoſe Wiſdom and Integrity afford the firmeſt Ground of Confidence.

While your Miniſters ſhall uniformly purſue Meaſures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, the true Intereſt and Happineſs of your People, your Majeſty may ſafely rely on the Support of all the Subjects of the Britiſh Empire, and may reſt aſſured that none will diſtinguiſh themſelves with warmer Zeal than the Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark.

Wm. Dowſon, Chairman.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Leiceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable Booth Grey, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Leiceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Inhabitants of your ancient Town of Leiceſter, during the preſent ſent Uncertainty of political Principle, and ambiguous Circumſtances of the Time, humbly approach the Throne, with Aſſurances of our firm and inviolate Attachment to your Perſon, Family, and Government.

We have long watched, with Attention and Uneaſineſs, the Machinations of a dangerous Coalition, and ſaw, with particular Alarm, the rapid Progreſs of a late India Bill, which menaced an immediate Derangement to our venerable and unequalled Conſtitution, and threatened the Deſtruction of the moſt ſacred Security in your Majeſty's Dominions.

Happy were we to find, that one Branch of the Legiſlature retained Virtue and Vigour enough to impede the Career of ſo impetuous an Attack: And we heartily thank you, Sire, for the wiſe and well-timed Interference of your Prerogative, in diſmiſſing from your Councils Men of ſo pernicious a Principle.

Long may your Majeſty continue the Head of our ineſtimable Form of Government; for the Preſervation of which, in the ſame Purity we received it from our Anceſtors, our beſt Exertions ſhall be employed; convinced that therein are intimately connected the Subjects Liberty and the Crown's Prerogative.

[Signed by 196 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town of Ipſwich, has been preſented to the King by Barne Barne, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Dunwich, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipſwich, in the County of Suffolk, in Great Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with an aweful Senſe of the Dangers which ſurround us, feeling for ourſelves and our Poſterity, we approach your Throne with Sentiments becoming your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, at ſo alarming a Criſis.

It was with great Concern we beheld your Majeſty's late Miniſters perſevering in a Meaſure which, in our Judgments, tended equally to encroach on the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown, to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the Eaſt India Company, and to raiſe a new Power unknown to this free Government, and highly inimical to its Safety.

As this dangerous Meaſure was ſo warmly and ſtrenuouſly ſupported by your Majeſty's late Miniſters, we cannot but heartily rejoice in their Diſmiſſion, and humbly thank your Majeſty for exerting your Prerogative in a Manner ſo ſalutary and conſtitutional, and calling to your Councils thoſe Perſons, on whoſe conſtitutional Principles and diſtinguiſhed Abilities we place the moſt perfect Reliance.

We truſt the violent and daring Reſolutions, which have been carried by a dangerous Combination of Power, will not deter your Majeſty from the juſt Exerciſe of your Prerogative whenever the Situation of your faithful Subjects ſhall require it; and we doubt not, that, in the well formed Legiſlation of this Kingdom, there will ever be found ſome Branch ready to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preſerve inviolate the Faith and Honor of Parliamentary Engagements.

Having a moſt grateful Senſe of the conſtant Solicitude your Majeſty ſhews to promote the true Intereſt and Happineſs of all your Subjects, and to preſerve inviolate our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we pray that you may long reign in Peace, over a free, an happy, and united Nation.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-firſt Day of January, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.
